Explanation This form is intended for former participants. Former participants are former Shell employees who are entitled to a retirement pension from the Pension Fund, for which they no longer make any contributions and which is not yet in payment.

You can use this form if you have a deferred pension from the Pension Fund that you wish to come into payment before your official retirement date. The Pension Fund must be in possession of the form no earlier than 12 months and no later than 2 months prior to the date on which you wish to start receiving your deferred pension benefit. You may make a once-only choice to start receiving your pension earlier, after which your choice is final.

N.B.: If there is an ex-partner with an entitlement to a special partner's pension and/or the retirement pension has been divided following a pension settlement, then your pension entitlements may not be sufficient to allow early payment of your deferred pension (see: Regulations V, Article 17.5).

I wish to start receiving my deferred pension from day month year

01 - - (date)

I have made this choice because I intend to retire as of that date.

Explanation You can make a once-only choice to start receiving your deferred pension earlier, but no earlier than at the age of 55. If you opt to commence payment of your pension before your official retirement age, the amount of your annual retirement pension will be lower. The partner's pension will also be lower as a consequence. Your deferred pension cannot commence earlier than 6 months following termination of your Shell employment.

If you have a deferred pension under Regulations IV or Regulations V, you can use the table in the Attachment to Regulations V to calculate how much lower your pension benefit will be if payment commences earlier. You can also contact the Pension Fund by e-mail or telephone to request a sample calculation.

Temporary pension: if you have a deferred pension under Regulations V, you may apply for a temporary pension to be paid up to the age of 65 on top of your deferred pension. If you would like to receive a temporary pension, you are also required to notify the Pension Fund of this no later than 2 months before your deferred pension commences. In that case, you are required to complete the form titled 'Final pension choices'. You can find more information about pension choices on the website.
