

awards & recognition

Awards are a testament to the constant inroads we strive to achieve by improving our occupational safety and health, plant reliability, corporate governance and contribution towards value creation. Your Company is proud to be recognised for our achievements, not only within the Shell Group but also from governmental and non-governmental agencies in Malaysia.

Awards & Certificates

We are proud to report that our unwavering commitment in occupational safety and health, as well as good corporate practices won us the following awards last year:

Malaysian Society of Occupational Safety and Health (MSOSH) Awards 2007

Shell Malaysia facilities won multiple safety awards from the Malaysian Society of Occupational Safety And Health (MSOSH) in recognition of our outstanding occupational safety and health performance. In 2008, your Company won the MSOSH Grand Award 2007 for superior OSH performance.

National Annual Corporate Report Awards (NACRA) 2008

Your Company was awarded a Certificate of Merit in recognition of excellence in annual corporate reporting. NACRA is aimed at promoting greater and more effective communication of financial and business information through the publication of timely and informative annual reports.

National Award for Management Accounting (NAfMA) 2008

Best Practice Award for Public Listed Company Category was awarded in recognition of your Company adopting best practices in management accounting and creating value that leads to business excellence.

Malaysian Business – CIMA Enterprise Governance Awards 2008

The award was presented to your Company by Malaysian Business, the oldest business magazine in the country that recognises the achievements in enterprise governance. It is an evolution of the successful 'Malaysian Business Corporate Governance Awards' held for the last five years. The awards have been charting the evolution of corporate governance in Malaysia.

Shell 2008 Manufacturing Executive Vice President's Awards in the Cost Category

Your Company was awarded the coveted award in recognition of our exceptional execution of the best-in-class flawless statutory Major Turnaround which was completed 2 days ahead of schedule.