

ENERGY FACTS CROSSWORD

Use the clues below to complete the Energy Facts Crossword.

Energy Crossword Clues

ACROSS

- We measure energy consumption in Btu, which stands for ___ thermal units. (Hint: think Austin Powers)
- Wind turbines use wind to make ____. (Hint: Ben Franklin had the key)
- Gasoline comes from crude ____.
- Solar power is energy from the ____.
- Refineries have to meet ___ standards. (Hint: think green!)
- Air pollution is a contributor to this environmental issue called The ___ Effect.
- Oil was formed from the remains of animals and ____.
- Crude oil is sent to this factory-type place to be separated into petroleum products.
- Some oil wells are on land and some are ____.
(Hint: think the opposite of "over")

DOWN

- The simplest and most abundant element (Hint: think of water)
- Energy of motion is ___ energy.
- The sun is a big ball of hydrogen and ___ gases. (Hint: it also keeps balloons afloat)
- Dishwashing liquid and deodorant are both this type of product.
- Most of the oil consumption in the U.S. is used for ____.
(Hint: think planes, trains, and automobiles)
- Hydropower is the energy of moving ____.
- Fuels like diesel and ___ have been improved to release less pollution from vehicles.

Challenge:

Create your own crossword puzzle, word find, or other game to demonstrate what you have learned about energy.

Visit shell.com/us/EnergizeYourFuture to test your energy knowledge with Technical Trivia.